

How to get here: India's Lost World

You need to fly to and from Lokpriya Gopinath Bordoloi Airport (Guwahati International Airport), Assam, India.

Please arrive at the very latest on the 18/03/23, the start day of the trip. If you are arriving earlier then please contact the resort directly and mention that you are part of Nomadic Knights motorcycle group. Please note that this is a fairly remote location. The clue's in the name.

The best way to get to the resort is by taxi. From the airport, it will cost around 1,000INR (around $15.00 USD) and as always, ask the price first. UBER is available in Guwahati.

The distance is around 47km and will take around one hour depending on traffic.

The address of our starting point hotel is: Brahmaputra Jungle Resort, near Laxmi Institute of Physical Education, Kamarkushi, Amching Jorabad Road, Tepesia, Sonapur, Guwahati.

Email: brahmaputraresort@yahoo.com

Tel: 0091 9706 099380

If there are any problems, you can text/call (WhatsApp) me on my mobile: 0091 9623 048879.

We end the ride on the 31/03/23 and leave the next day on the 01/04/23. We have paid transport from the hotel to take you back to the drop off point at Guwahati International Airport.

For your flight arrangements I suggest that you try www.cleartrip.com or www.makemytrip.com.

These are India based travel websites that offer very competitive rates in all currencies.

See you in Assam.

Alex Pirie.

Founder and Lead Rider.